PRICE FIVE CENTS

400 MEMBERS AT ANNUAL SESSION OF COUNTY CO-OP

"Cooperatives have a definite place in the American economy," declared J. K. Stern, president of the American Institute of Cooperation, in an address at the annual meeting of the Adams County Electrical Cooperative Saturday afternoon in the Gettysburg High School cafeteria.

"A cooperative is people working together, to get services they wouldn't have any other way," he said. He used the Adams County Electric as an example, saying that "it was formed because it was the only way the members could get electricity. Other co-ops, such as the wool-growers, work on that same principle."

Speaking of taxes he said: "Your organization alone paid out over $7,000 last year in taxes," he said.

Re-elect 3 Directors

The three directors whose terms expired were re-elected by the approximately 400 members who attended. They are: George Steinberger, Fairfield R. D., for Adams County; W. H. Hensel, Newburg R. 1, for Cumberland and Franklin Counties; and Rev. Henry E. Miller, Brodbeck's R. 1, for York County.

Reports, presented by Manager C. A. Cluck and by other cooperative officers showed the Adams Electric now has 5,778 members, an increase of about 200 in the last year. Miles of lines total 1,431, also an increase since last year, and Mr. Cluck said the amount of current used by the average patron showed a marked increase last year. The average annual bill for current is $91.24, an increase of about $5 in the last year while "rates remained constant."

Manager Cluck pointed out that there has not been a change in rates to customers since the cooperative was organized.

Eisenhowers Elude Press To Visit Farm

President Eisenhower and his "First Lady," Mrs. Eisenhower, "stole a march" on White House correspondents and photographers Saturday when they left the capital and drove to their Gettysburg farm. An hour later the reporters and photographers were told of the departure and they hurriedly "looked off" after the President.

Shortly before 1 p.m. the seven reporters and photographers arrived at the Hotel Gettysburg and ordered a "hurried" lunch. They had gone to the farm but were denied admission. Later, the Secret Service men told them the President and his party would return to Washington in the afternoon. The Eisenhowers lunched at the farmhouse and returned to the White House about 3 p.m. That was the reason for the "hurried" lunch at the hotel.

There was some speculation Saturday that the President was going to register for the May primaries. However, inquiry at the County Commissioners' office revealed that Saturday was the last day to register for the primaries and that the office would close at noon. Clarence Smith, commissioners' clerk, said no arrangements had been made for the President and Mrs. Eisenhower to register after the noon closing.

One political observer commented, "I don't think the President is going to register."

Shindledecker Is Still "Critical"

The condition of Donald Shindledecker, 39, Glen Burnie, Md., who was seriously hurt last Tuesday night in an automobile crash near his home, remains unchanged in South Baltimore Hospital. He remains on the critical list and his condition has not yet permitted x-ray examinations, hospital authorities said.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Shindledecker, 217 W. Middle St., and other members of their family visited Shindledecker over the weekend but found him unable to talk to them.

Shindledecker is an employee of the Davis Chemical Company at Curtis Bay, Md. His address is Second Floor, South Baltimore General Hospital, Room D, Northside, Baltimore.

STRONG WINDS, COLD WEATHER OVER WEEKEND

High winds that began Saturday and continued through the weekend added to the discomfort to the coldest late March cold snap Gettysburg has experienced in 40 years.

The mercury dropped to 20 degrees Sunday morning, a mark that has not been reached on any March 27 since 1915, Gettysburg Times weather records show.

More television aerials buckled and utilities reported minor amounts of line trouble as trees or branches went down and carried light or telephone lines down with them.

Gales that averaged about 40 miles an hour and gusts that topped the 50-mile an hour mark snapped off a telephone pole between the county home and WGET Sunday morning. The whipping cable loosened the next pole along the line. The poles were propped with long pole poles until replacements were made today.

A heavy gust of wind broke the huge plate glass window in Martin's Shoe Store, Baltimore St., Sunday afternoon. The glass measured 108 by 100 inches. George Martin, proprietor, says the glass cost $150. It is covered by insurance, he said.

The Metropolitan Edison Company reported only minor damage. A tree blown over near the Glenn L. Bream garage on Buford Ave. Sunday afternoon about 1 o'clock cut off service for an hour to several users. The Adams Electric Cooperative reported little trouble and John Caldwell of the United Telephone Company said they had some calls of line trouble. He said he is "sure there must be more trouble" and asked patrons to notify the company promptly when service is interrupted.

The weather stayed cold over the weekend. Sunday's high was only 35 degrees and at 7:30 o'clock this morning the reading was 26 degrees.

Mrs. Bierly charges her husband with the theft of her wallet and $30 from her apartment. The charge was laid after the couple was involved in a "fracas" early Saturday morning at Mitchell's Restaurant, Lincoln Square.

Bierly was welcome at the jail where he was wanted for contempt of court for failing to comply with a support order and for violation of terms of a parole. Arrangements are being made for him to appear later this week for a hearing on the larceny charge.

The filming of the picture began in July, 1950, and was produced by a group of New York and Hollywood actors who played the leading roles. The scenes show the life of a small town man from his childhood to his adult years with Arendtsville being the town in which he lived.

Cabin Home Is Destroyed By Fire; Family Of 6 Homeless

A family of six fled their burning home in their night clothing at 4 o'clock this morning when an oil-burning space heater in their 20 x 30 foot cabin exploded at the western edge of Sheffer's Park four miles north of here along the Biglerville Rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Leatherman and their four children, blackened by smoke and most of them homeless and wearing only their night clothing, escaped through a window. One of the boys is reported to have jumped out the emergency exit and was followed by the other members of the family. The children range in age from 6 to 12 years.

The building, owned by John Sheffer, was burned to the ground and the Leathermans lost all their family possessions.

Heavy Wind Fans Flames

The Gettysburg firemen were called at 4:10 o'clock but found the building beyond saving. The flames spread to the woods and they called the Biglerville Fire company for help as they fought the blaze in a 40-mile gale.

The Leathermans went to homes of neighbors and relatives.

Mr. Sheffer estimated the value of the building at about $2,000 and said he had books stored there he "wouldn't take $5,000 for."

The Leathermans lost a refrigerator and washing machine and almost all of their clothing and furniture.

Gettysburg firemen today said they will receive donations of clothing for the family at the engine house. Later, when they find new living quarters, there will be an appeal for bed clothing and furniture.

Mrs. Leatherman wears size 12 clothes. The two girls in the family are aged 12 and 8 years and the boys are 10 and six years old. Mr. Leatherman wears 14½ size shirt and 32-30 trousers.

Says Hiss Was Spy At Yalta

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Mundt (R-SD) says Alger Hiss "was acting in an espionage capacity" when he was given secret American documents just before the Yalta conference.

The senator gave no details to back up his statement, made during an NBC television appearance yesterday, but he added:

"No wonder that the Russians were able at Yalta to get these concessions because their courier, their agent, was at that time able to plant himself in the Department of State."

Hiss, who attended the Yalta conference as a State Department adviser, recently completed a prison sentence for perjury in denying that he had passed secret information before the war to a Communist spy ring in this country.

RIEGLE TELLS D.K.G. WOMEN OF RECRUITMENT

About 30 members of the Delta Kappa Gamma, international educational society for women teachers, attended a luncheon at the Hotel Gettysburg Saturday at which H. Edgar Riegler, Adams County superintendent of schools, discussed "Selective Recruitment of Teachers."

Mrs. Amy Gorman presided over the affair at which both Adams and Franklin Counties were represented.

Spring flowers decorated the tables. Miss Alice Snyder, member of the Gettysburg Junior High School faculty, introduced the speaker.

In his address Riegler said: "The number of teachers needed each year has been estimated at 75,000 to 125,000. These figures take into account the fact that each year over 60,000 teachers quit, die, or retire. It is statistically impossible to get enough qualified teachers to staff our schools fully in any one year between now and 1964."

"The low birth rates in the depression '30's has resulted in the fact that there are fewer college-age adults in the decade of the '50's than in any recent period."

More Children, Need Teachers

"In any foreseeable future decade there will be more college age adults than there are now but there will also be more children to be taught. Hence we must do what we can to encourage young people to enter the teaching field. In 1952, teacher trainees made up about a third of all college graduates, but the demand for new teachers equalled 64 per cent of all college graduates."

"For every year between now and 1960 the estimated demand for new teachers will be more than half the estimated number of all college graduates. It then becomes apparent that we shall have to do something to increase the 33 per cent of college folk enrolled in teacher preparation courses. To make matters worse, statistically, the total number of graduates who qualify for teaching has been declining every year since 1950."

The next luncheon meeting will be held April 30 at the Graeffenburg Inn, Caledonia, at which Mrs. Ruth Harley, member of the faculty of Shippensburg State Teachers College, will speak. The society will announce the winner of a $25 scholarship which is given by the women each year to a girl who has completed her first year at Shippensburg.

4 Chimney Fires Over Weekend

High winds over the weekend brought a rash of chimney fires for fire companies. Gettysburg and Littlestown were called to one chimney fire each and York Springs had two chimney fires reported within one hour.

At 11:30 o'clock Sunday morning the local firemen were called to the property of Mrs. Preston Hull, Chambersburg St. About 2 p.m. Sunday the Littlestown firemen answered a call to the home of Jacob Hes, Black's Corner, Littlestown R. 1.

York Springs firemen were called Sunday at 11:45 a.m. to the home of Claude Smith, Littlestown, to extinguish a chimney fire. The booster tanks were used. While the firemen were at the Smith home, a man drove there telling them to go to the home of Reynolds Bowers, about a half mile away. The Bowers chimney was on fire. That too, was extinguished by the use of booster tanks with very little damage.

Eisenhowers

to register until the general elections next fall.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The privacy President Eisenhower wants at his new country home at Gettysburg, Pa., may more than double the size of his farm.

There were indications last July that the President had added 124 acres to the 189-acre farm he purchased more than five years ago. That additional tract—adjoining the original property—actually was bought by some of the chief executive's close friends, retired Brig. Gen. Arthur S. Nevins, but the $55,000 transaction reportedly was negotiated on behalf of the President.

The 124 acres still are registered in Nevins' name, however.

Recently there have been reports that Nevins is about to complete negotiations for still another 160-acre farm which adjoins the Eisenhower property in another direction. Nevins has refused to say whether he has been acting as the President's agent. The White House takes the position that the farm is part of Eisenhower's private life and the staff won't comment either.

In any event the possibilities of intrusion on the President's privacy seem to be fading. His goal of more seclusion while on the farm seems to be achieved whether the adjacent acres belong to him or to Nevins.

There are several scenes in which most of the acting was done by residents of Arendtsville, such as the meeting of the Church Council of Trinity Lutheran Church which consisted of Walter Frederick, Clarence Oyler, Charles Bushey, J. Blaine Bushey, E. D. Bushman and Dr. Raymond M. Hale Jr.

The graduation scene at the Arendtsville Elementary School building included 30 residents of the community acting as the audience and watching the graduation exercises in which Lewis Bosserman, principal of the Arendtsville School, acted as the principal in the film production and introduced the actor who makes the address in the film. Others of the community who participated in this scene were David Houck, Paul Burgoon, E. D. Bushman, Clarence Oyler and Walter Frederick.

In the baptism scene in Trinity

Lutheran Church the child baptized was Kathy Carol Barbour, a six-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barbour, Gardners R. D.

Use Warner Hospital

The hospital scene was shot in the corridors and in the rooms of the Annie Warner Hospital, Gettysburg, with Dr. Raymond Hale Jr., Miss Lois Benson, then director of nurses, Miss Caroline Culver, Mrs. Anna Mae Teeter, nurses, and Alex Boertkive, orderly, and other hospital staff members taking part in the scenes.

The film will be of special interest to all residents of Arendtsville and surrounding area who cooperated during the filming of the picture. In anticipation of a large attendance the Lenten Fellowship Hour service, of which the showing of the film is a part, will be held in the church auditorium. Mrs. Dale McCauslin and Mrs. Earl Eckey will preside at the organ and piano for the 20-minute hymn sing which will open the service. A social period with light refreshments, following the presentation of the film, will be held in the social room of the Church School building to which all are invited. Members of the Cheerful Workers Class of the Arendtsville Church School, taught by Warren Bushey, will be in charge of this period.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO
G. Edward Hersh, Esq., of York, formerly of this county, has been appointed Aide-de-camp to the Governor, with the rank of Lieut. Colonel.

Married: On Thursday by the Rev. N. Doolittle, Mr. James R. Elliott, formerly of Gettysburg, to Miss Sophia A. Pelouze, eldest daughter of Louis Pelouze — all of Philadelphia.

On the 22d inst., by Rev. Jacob Ziegler, Mr. Henry Spangler, to Miss Sarah H., daughter of Mr. George Plank — both of Cumberland Township.

On the same day, by the same, Mr. Lafayette Brenizer, of Hampton, to Miss Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. Jacob Plank, of Hamilton Township.

On the 22d inst., by Rev. G. Roth, Mr. Benjamin Franklin Thomas, of Butler Township, to Miss Margaret Meals, of Menallen Township.

On the 27th inst., by Rev. R. Hill, Mr. William Chritzman, to Miss Sarah Ann Weikert — both of this place.

The Borough officers elected on the 16th were qualified on Thursday evening and entered upon their duties — John Culp, Esq., as Burgess, and John Gilbert and D. Kandehart, as members of council. Hon. S. R. Russell was re-elected President of the Council; R. G. McCreary, Esq., Clerk and Treasurer; and John Burns was appointed High Constable and Wood-Corder.

Fatal Accident: On Wednesday, Mr. John W. Cook, of Menallen Township, in this county, was killed at the Railroad depot in Hanover, by one of the cars detached from a burden train running over him. He was standing on the track, while the car, detached from the locomotive, was coming down the grade. Either not noticing the approach of the car, or neglecting to avoid it until too late, he was struck and knocked down, the car passing over his body, and injuring him so severely that he died in a few minutes. Mr. Cook was an active and much respected citizen. He was at Hanover with his team and wagon, and was at the time in lively conversation with some bystanders.—It.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

The second term of Pennsylvania College closes this week for the usual vacation of one week, when the third term will open.

On Monday night M. F. Troxell, the successful competitor for the Graeff prize for the best essay by members of the senior class, read his essay in the presence of a good audience in Christ Church. The subject assigned this year was Goldsmith's "Deserted Village." The essay was a thoughtful analysis of the poet's general style and of the "Deserted Village" specially, evincing a full grasp of the poem and a discriminating criticism of its merits. The music, by a select choir under the leadership of Miss Fahnestock, was of a higher grade than usual on these occasions, and contributed much to the evening's entertainment.

Robins: Thousands of robins quarter at night in the pines and shrubbery of the National Cemetery. They leave about sunrise for feeding grounds, and return again about sunset for the night.

Rev. Mr. Ganoe occupied the pulpit of the M. E. Church on Sunday morning and evening. It is expected that Mr. Colburn will preach next Sunday.

Mr. Scott, Ticket Agent at this place, has sold about 100 tickets for different points in the western states.

Fairfield Items: The tramps, as they proceed on their weary way over our bad roads, are occasionally seen sitting on the fence for a rest; and as they "flop" down in the mud again, they sigh and exclaim, "Oh, that I had wings."

New Oxford Items: The Rev. Mr. Colliflower, pastor of the Reformed Church of this place, preached his farewell sermon on Sunday eve-

Today's Talk

LOYALTY
Few words are so packed with meaning as is that word "loyalty." Its earliest application starts in the home with children learning its wonderful power. It's carried into the school room, into the business office, into all our friendships, and indeed into so many of our transactions in life. Loyalty to our country and its free institutions is a major loyalty.

You can buy skill, ability, and even knowledge that has been packed into books, but you can't buy loyalty. Loyalty is something that one is born to. It is related to integrity, and both are what make up the framework of character. You can't be an unimpeachable friend, or an efficient employee if you are not steeped in loyalty.

The outstanding characteristic of "man's best friend" — the dog — is his loyalty. And he is loyal unto death.

Nearly every great thing in this world is built upon loyalty. Just figure out what a lack of it would mean. How many friends would we have? How safely could we be assured of our business or of any enterprise we might originate or create? It is heartening to note the love and loyalty of those to former giants in the public service, for example. I have a friend who was once one of the aides to former President Hoover. Always he spoke with affection for him, calling him "The Chief."

Elbert Hubbard, the famous writer and founder of "The Roycrofters," at East Aurora, New York, wrote a widely copied article on loyalty. In it he made the point that a man should either "get in line" or "get out." We should be 100 per cent loyal or go where we can be. One disloyal person can disrupt an entire organization. There isn't room in a free country for a single human being who doesn't believe in freedom, and stand ready at any moment to defend that freedom through his loyalty.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Self Companionship." Protected, 1955, George Matthew Adams Service.

HERITAGE
Because somebody, long ago
A charming maiden chanced to see
And married her (things happen so)
His name was passed along to me.
Their son in time to manhood grew
And raised a family of his own.
His boys (I think that there were two)
Preserved the name that he had known.

I cannot trace the distant line.
Too far into the past it runs.
But there were relatives of mine
Who gave the name unto their sons.
Forgotten in their graves they lie
Unknown to fortune or to fame,
But as the years went racing by
To follow them my grandsire came.

He met a maiden fair to see;
He married, and they had a son
Who was my father born to be.
So do all family histories run.
Although today I cannot trace
My heritage from year to year,
Because these marriages took place
Must be the reason I am here.

GROUND RENTS, GAS ROYALTIES BEING PROBED

HARRISBURG (P)—Gas royalties and ground rentals received from state forest lands was the No. 1 topic today as the House Conservation and Wild Life Committee questioned two Forestry and Waters Department officials.

Secretary Maurice K. Goddard was making his second appearance before the legislative group charged with studying Pennsylvania's fish, game, forest and water resources. Called to testify with him was Dr. John C. Calhoun Jr., recently named the department's special oil and gas consultant.

Calhoun, from McKean County, was a professor of petroleum and natural gas at the Pennsylvania State University before taking his new job.

"We intend to inquire whether the state is receiving the maximum return from gas leases and producing wells on state forest lands," Chairman Harris G. Breh (D-Clearfield) said before the afternoon public hearing began.

Several weeks ago the committee interviewed Game Commission officials on the same subject as applied to state game lands.

"Rock-bound Lease"
"We gave the Game Commission a clean bill of health on this subject," Breh added. "They have a lease form that is rock-bound."

The last report of the Forest and Waters Department showed the state received more than $4 million dollars from gas royalties and rentals of state forest lands for the first 10 months of last year. That figure was almost half a million above the cost of all forest land owned by the state.

Over a four-year period the state received $12 million in such funds, mostly from gas wells in the Benzette-Driftwood Field in Elk County.

The Game Commission and Forestry and Waters Departments make royalty agreements and lease land separately with different specifications fixed by each.

The committee will continue its study tomorrow with its attention again centering on the state Fish Commission. Breh has indicated tomorrow's major concern will be the continuing decline of streams available to the fishermen.

Game Code Enforcement
Next Tuesday, the committee will take up the matter of enforcement of the game code with Game Commission officials. The commission's six area enforcement supervisors will be on hand to answer questions.

"The committee would like to learn whether the amount of money spent on law enforcement is excessive," Breh said.

"We are especially interested in the deputy game protector program launched by the commission which has resulted in appointment of over 1,800 deputy wardens. This compares to the 150 regular game protectors."

Breh said another topic would be the $125,000 set aside in the commission's new budget for "radio equipment for game law enforcement officers."

"We also intend to look into the number of arrests made protectors for purely technical reasons—in which there is little evidence of willful violation although the letter of the code is broken."

McKeesport Coach Played On Title 5

PHILADELPHIA (P)—When McKeesport high won the state schoolboy basketball title over the weekend Coach Cornelius P. (Neenie) Campbell joined a select group of men.

He is the third man in the 36-year-old history of the PIAA state-wide eliminations to play on a Class A state champion basketball team and then return years later to coach a champion five.

Campbell was the high scorer for the 1924 Homestead team that beat Nanticoke for the championship.

Other men to do the same thing in the past were Bernie Thrush, a member of Steelton's 1927 winner and then coach of the 1940 championship squad from Lebanon; and John Naegel, who played with Old Forge's 1932 champs and coached the 1953 title winning Yeadon club.

MARISSA PAVAN HAD PROBLEM GETTING NAME

By WAYNE OLIVER

NEW YORK (P)—How does a young actress who has a famous twin sister go about choosing a professional name that's different?

That was the problem of Marissa Pavan who makes her live television debut tonight on CBS' Studio One. Her real name is Marissa Pierangeli and her twin sister, Anna, simply divided the family name to become Pier Angeli.

Marissa, not wanting to walk in her sister's shadow, solved her problem in this fashion:

"I thought of all the last names of my friends back in Italy to see if one might not go well with Marissa."

"I'd write down my first name and try it with each last name. I went down the list and couldn't find one that sounded right."

"Then I remembered a friend of the family named Pavan and wrote 'Marissa Pavan.' I liked it and decided to use it. I was working at Paramount at the time and suggested the name, and they approved it."

"That way I didn't even have to change my initials."

Another TV play is headed for the Broadway stage. Terry Lewis, TV and radio producer, has bought the rights to The Rabbit Trap, seen several weeks ago on NBC's Television Playhouse.

They rolled 1,049 to replace Rae Adams and Irene Chramm of Erie. Evelyn Fahringer of Sunbury became the leader in the Class A all events with 1,597—one pin ahead of Miss Schramm.

HORNETS MEET BISONS NEXT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Pittsburgh Hornets will be hosts to the Buffalo Bisons when the American Hockey League's Calder Cup playoff finals get underway Wednesday March 30. The series will be best-of-seven.

The Hornets, who won the regular season championship, reached the finals last night with a 4-3 "sudden death" overtime victory over the Springfield Indians. Pittsburgh took the best-of-five semifinal series 3 games to 1.

Buffalo, which finished fourth in the league standings, eliminated the defending champion Cleveland Barons 3 games to 1. The Bisons downed Cleveland 6-4 last night.

Gerry Foley's goal at 7:47 of the "sudden death" period gave Pittsburgh the triumph. Foley converted a pass from Ray Timgren. The Hornets came from behind three times before subduing stubborn Springfield, which had defeated Pittsburgh 4-3 Saturday night.

Buffalo insured its victory over the Barons when Ken Wharram drilled the puck into an empty Cleveland cage at 19:34 of the final period. It was Wharram's second goal of the night. The Bisons trounced Cleveland 8-0 Saturday night.

Raschi In Relief Teaching Role

Raschi holds a degree in physical education from William & Mary. In addition to teaching classes Vic also coached the junior varsity basketball team.

Rocky Heading For "Battle" In West

GROSSINGER, N. Y. (P)—Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano broke camp here today and headed for California, where he will begin serious workouts for his May 16 title defense against Don Cockell of England in San Francisco.

The Brooklyn blockbuster will set up headquarters in Calistoga, Calif., 73 miles from San Francisco, about six weeks before the fight.

Marciano will make a series of appearances en route to California, including stops at Carbondale and Scranton, Pa.

Tigers Rebuilding "Kaline's Korner"

DETROIT (P)—In the 1940's the Pittsburgh Pirates constructed a shortened left field fence in an effort to take advantage of the home run power of Hank Greenberg and Ralph Kiner. Appropriately, it was known as "Greenberg Gardens."

Now the Detroit Tigers have come up with "Kaline's Korner."

Last summer, President Spike Briggs of the Tigers winced every time he saw his promising rookie right fielder, Al Kaline, go smashing into the right field seats in pursuit of a foul ball. It happened on several occasions but, fortunately, Kaline averted serious injury.

Briggs, not one to tempt fate, ordered that 50 box seats be removed from the right field corner. The move it is estimated, will cost more than $3,000 in paid admissions next summer, but it will be money well spent if Kaline's young limbs are preserved.

Rome Bars Malayan Ace; OK Companion

SINGAPORE (P)—Edwin Dutton, one of Malaya's most popular soccer stars, is back in Malaya after a trip to London. But he said he couldn't get a look at Rome because the Italians refused him permission to land there.

His traveling companion, Chia Boon Leong, did get into Rome. But he voiced a complaint—"a haircut cost me six dollars!"

PITTSBURGH (P)—St. Rose's High School of Carbondale won its first Class A PIAA title Saturday night by defeating Pittsburgh North Catholic, 73-56, at the Pitt Field House.

McKeesport Stages Late Rally To Defeat Chester 54-48 For PIAA Honors

By DICK HOENIG

PHILADELPHIA (P)—A McKeesport High School quintet that refused to fold under pressure holds the PIAA state basketball championship by virtue of a 54-48 win over a strong Chester team.

McKeesport started strong, fell behind and then rallied en route to its title victory Saturday night at the University of Pennsylvania's Palestra in the 36th annual state tourney.

The game had the aspects of a rout at first as the suburban Pittsburgh champs jumped off to an 8-0 lead in the first two minutes of play. But in the fourth quarter McKeesport was forced to come from behind to tie the Clippers at 46. Then the Tigers spurred in the final 3½ minutes to give western Pennsylvania its third state title in the past four years.

Sharp rebounding by 6 foot 2 Tom Markovich and Stu Heller, 6 foot 5 center, plus phenomenal first quarter shooting turned the trick.

Coach Neenie Campbell, winning the top prize in Pennsylvania schoolboy basketball after 12 years at McKeesport, loses four of his five starters. But it doesn't worry him too much.

"We'll be o.k.," he said confidently after Saturday night's victory.

The Tigers eliminated defending champion Farrell in winning the WPIAL and Dist. 7 title in their playoff march.

"We knew we could lick them after losing to them in an early season exhibition by four points at Farrell," Campbell said. "We made so many mistakes that time," he explained.

Third District Title
McKeesport's win, the third for Dist. 7 and the west in the last four years against Dist. 1 (suburban Philadelphia competition), gave the west a second consecutive sweep of the state public school flag. Wampum, the WPIAL Class B winner, took the state B title for the first time with its 31st straight triumph Friday, 73-61, over Fountain Hill of Dist. 11.

Fredonia of Dist. 10, the team that won the first statewide Class C tourney in 1951, came back to take the 1955 title, 50-44, over Freeport, the eastern champ.

Chester gave it a good try in losing its second straight state final. The Clippers were behind 22-11 at the end of the first quarter but they held a 31-30 lead at half-time. John Laszek and Horace Walker pitched in with six points each to put the eastern club back in the ball game.

McKeesport caught up in the third period and the clubs went into the final eight minutes tied at 40. In all, the lead changed hands eight times.

Jump Shots Fatal
Heller's three jump shots plus a Markovich tap in the last 3½ minutes decided the outcome. Heller was high for the night with 19, just one more than Laszek.

Markovich had 12 of McKeesport's 22 in the first period spurge but he also picked up four personal fouls. He left the game midway in the second period and not until he returned with the score 44-42 did the Tigers begin to move again.

"Guess we just can't get the big one," said Chester Coach Bob Forwood whose team closed out the year with a 26-2 record. The first and last games were the only losses.

A capacity crowd of 8,482 filled the Palestra to see the western section win its 14th championship to 22 for the eastern Pennsylvania entry.

Bob Eppleman Presented College Beachem Award; 125 Presented Letters

Robert G. Eppleman, 21, Gloucester, N. J., was presented the Beachem Athletic Award, given annually to an outstanding senior athlete at Gettysburg College by the school's Student Christian Association, during the annual Awards program in the college chapel this morning.

Dr. Walter C. Langsam, college president, made the presentation to Eppleman to climax the program during which letters were presented to 125 athletes for achievement during last spring fall and the past winter.

The Beachem Award is given for athletic achievement, commendable scholarship and Christian character, and in considered the college's highest athletic honor.

Eppleman, a Dean's List economics major, played fullback four seasons on the football squad, and was the club's leading ground-gainer in his sophomore and senior years. He was a Philadelphia Maxwell Club Award winner in 1954 and was named to the Associated Press All-Pennsylvania second team. A leader of the athletic field, Eppleman, who also starred in track and swimming, is president of the Senior Class, vice president of his fraternity, and a member of Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

Henry T. Bream, athletic director, presided during the program and assisted in making letter presentations. Other coaches taking part in the presentations included: Jim Lentz, swimming; William Hartshorne, soccer; Joseph Wolfinger, golf; Eugene Haas, football and tennis.

Bream also presented the Bulletin wrestling squad its second Middle Atlantic championship wrestling trophy for retirement. A school must win the trophy three times for retirement.

Letter winners were as follows:

Lehigh Wrestler Gets NCAA Honors

ITHACA, N. Y. (AP)—Lehigh's Ed Eichelberger won the outstanding wrestler award over the weekend as he pinned four of his five opponents while en route to the 147-pound NCAA wrestling championship.

In the team finals, Oklahoma A. & M. won its second straight championship by scoring 40 points. Penn State was second with 31 points and Pitt third with 28.

Pittsburgh's Ed Peery captured the 123-pound title and Penn State's Larry Fornicola and William Oberly won the 137-pound and heavy-weight titles respectively.

HOPE TO SAVE EASTERN CLUBS

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Directors of the Williamsport area baseball corp. meet with representatives of local service clubs today in an effort to keep Williamsport in the Class A Eastern League for the 1955 season.

Interested parties approached the meeting optimistic that baseball can be retained although the association has decided not to continue operation of the club.

Association directors voted 12-4 March 14 against continuing to operate the franchise. Their decision was based on a pre-season ticket sale which fell $20,000 short of a $50,000 goal and the inability to strengthen a working agreement with Pittsburgh.

However, the association left the door open for any local group to take over the team. Various interested parties have held several meetings on the situation with Thomas H. Richardson, Williamsport, president of the Eastern League.

SAXTON TO PUT TITLE ON LINE WITH DEMARCO

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press

Johnny Saxton puts his welter-weight championship on the line for the first time since he won the crown from Kid Gavilan five months ago when he faces local idol Tony DeMarco in Boston Friday night in the top bout of the week.

Saxton won the 147-pound title in Philadelphia and a controversial one it was. It was so close it could have gone either way.

The odds around Boston are 6-5 and pick 'em, but most New York oddsmakers have installed Saxton a 3-2 choice. Saxton isn't a pleasing fighter, relying mainly on a combination of clutching and infighting. But it has proved successful for him as witness his record of 45-3-2.

DeMarco shows an impressive 40-4-1 mark, but it has been made almost wholly in Boston. His best effort to date was a 10-round draw with lightweight king Jimmy Carter last month.

Favor DeMarco
There will be no television or radio for the Friday bout.

Paddy DeMarco, making his first start in this country since losing his lightweight title to Carter, rates a 3-1 choice to walk past Libby Manzo, a good local boxer, at New York's St. Nicholas Arena tonight.

After being licked by Carter, Paddy headed for foreign shores and was flattened promptly by Seraphin Ferrer in Paris. Now he's back and hopes to get a fresh start. The bout will be televised over Du Mont.

At Eastern Parkway, tonight's pairing will be Jimmy Martinez, of Phoenix, Ariz., against Danny Gio-

Allentown A. A. of Pittsburgh, Pa., was fifth with 2,877 pins and Hanover Moose No. 1, of Hanover, Pa., was tied for eighth place with 2,787. Keystone Bowling Supply of Erie, Pa., was the tenth team with 2,786 pins.

Curus Balmer, of Hershey, Pa., rolled 642 to tie for seventh place in the singles event.

Simmons Hopeful Hurling Arm Okay

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Curt Simmons, ace lefthander for the Phillies, tossed 15 minutes of batting practice yesterday and the Phils are happily assuming that in a short time he'll be ready to work regularly.

The veteran, plagued of late with arm troubles, felt strong enough to spend 10 extra minutes on the mound after his turn at pitching batting practice.

"I feel better now than before," Curt said after his stint yesterday. "Of course I didn't go all out and it still may be too early to be definite but I'm very hopeful."

WIN DEBATE TITLE

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP)—St. Joseph's College of Philadelphia won the Dist. 7 debating championship here Saturday. Students from 22 colleges argued whether diplomatic recognition should be given communist China by the United States.

Wilkes-Barre was second and Penn State fourth.

HITTERS START TO FIND RANGE IN MAJORS NOW

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
The Associated Press

For the first few weeks of baseball's spring training season, it's the pitchers who hold the upper hand while the hitters gradually adjust their batting eyes. Now, with the major league teams winding up their fourth week of workouts, the hitters have started to find the range.

This was borne out yesterday when such formidable swingers as Larry Doby, Jim Rivera, Jackie Robinson, Willie Mays, Dusty Rhodes, Bob Cerv, Yogi Berra, Stan Musial, Frank Thomas, Del Ennis and Smokey Burgess unleashed a barrage of base hits in exhibition games.

Doby smashed three home runs—one with the bases loaded—and drove in seven runs as the Cleveland Indians overwhelmed San Francisco of the Pacific Coast League 14-0.

Clutch Hits Beat Dodgers

Two clutch hits by Rivera helped the Chicago White Sox edge the Brooklyn Dodgers 4-3 in 11 innings. The fleet outfielder socked a two-run homer with two out in the ninth inning to tie the score 3-3. Then he stepped up in the 11th frame and delivered a double that sent home Minnie Minoso with the winning run.

Robinson collected four singles, for the Dodgers and scored two runs.

Mays homered in the New York Giants' 8-4 triumph over the Chicago Cubs yesterday. New York has won four in a row and eight of the last nine games. Meanwhile, the amazing Mays has accounted for eight round-trippers.

While Mays was performing with the varsity, teammate Dusty

Will Make Check On 1956 Olympic Games

CHICAGO (AP)—Avery Brundage, head of the International Olympic Games Committee, will leave for Melbourne, Australia, this week despite assurances that preparations for the 1956 games will be completed on schedule.

Brundage yesterday said he has heard conflicting reports from Australia that labor troubles have delayed work on the stadium and other facilities for the games.

Rhodes went on a batting rampage to lead the Giants' "B" squad to a 13-8 conquest over Cleveland's "B" team. He lashed out four hits—including a double and a triple—as he drove in five runs.

Cards Foul Yanks

In the first game of a double-header, the New York Yankees downed the St. Louis Cards 7-4. The teams fought to a scoreless tie in the seven-inning nightcap. Cerv's bases-loaded home run in the eighth inning gave the Yanks their victory and Berra chipped in with four hits. Musial slammed his first four-bagger of the spring for the Cards.

Thomas, appearing in his first exhibition game since signing with Pittsburgh March 17, walloped a three-run homer and a single in three trips to spark Pittsburgh to a 7-6 squeaker over the Baltimore Orioles.

Ennis and Burgess each had a single, a double and a home run to lead the Philadelphia Phils to a 15-1 rout of the Cincinnati Redlegs. Jim Piersall batted in three runs as the Boston Red Sox turned back Kansas City 4-1.

The Washington Senators beat the Detroit Tigers 3-2.

TOM GOLA MAY ACCEPT OFFER FOR BASEBALL

NEW YORK (AP)—Tom Gola, a three-time All-America in basketball who never played college baseball, admitted today that he was interested in taking a crack at the national pastime with the Philadelphia Phillies.

"I'm not sure yet," Gola said. "The Phillies just said they'd like to look me over."

The Kansas City Athletics, New York Yankees and Cincinnati Redlegs also are reportedly in the market for Tom's baseball services.

"I never had a chance to play in college," the La Salle senior said. "The basketball season always ran too late. I played in high school and on the sandlots. I played first base and the outfield."

Drawing Card

The Phillies are interested in Gola because of his potential as a drawing card and a long-distance slugger. Gola stands 6-7 and scales about 215.

Yesterday Gola finished playing three basketball games in 24 hours. After playing in the East - West game Saturday night he came back with the College All-Stars to play the Harlem Globetrotters in a doubleheader at Madison Square Garden that kicked off their annual tour and marked Gola's pro debut.

The handsome Philadelphiaian scored six points in the afternoon game and 18 at night. The Trotters won both ends, 67-63 and 72-70.

Mundt Wants Battle-Trained Officers To Decide On Reds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Mundt (R-SD) said Saturday he wants "battle-trained officers" to say whether suspected Communists in the Army should face the same risks as "the patriotic soldier."

Alternatives could be to dismiss them from service or assign them to noncombat duties where they can be watched—at a time when loyal American youths are being drafted for possible hazardous duty.

Mundt said the general question of what to do with Communists in service is one problem remaining unsettled after the Senate's newest inquiry into the Irving Peress case.

Peress is the New York dentist commissioned under the doctor-draft law, advanced from captain to major, and given an honorable discharge. The Army had classified him as a security risk, and conceded it made numerous mistakes in handling his case.

Changing Policies
Since the Korean War the Army has had changing policies on whether and where to use known and suspected Reds in uniform. Secretary of Defense Wilson has called it a perplexing problem to which he knows no ideal solution.

One solution has been to keep such persons in uniform as enlisted men, under surveillance, and assigned to menial tasks within this country.

Mundt said no Communist should ever be allowed to serve as an officer, but neither should he be given "favored treatment" in avoiding hazardous assignments. "There must," Mundt told reporters, "be duties in battle areas to which you can assign them where there are no greater or lesser hazards and hardships than the patriotic soldier must experience."

"It can best be studied not by Congress but by battle-trained officers. The Pentagon will might set up a board of officers to come up with recommendations."

The investigations subcommittee voted Friday to hold no further public hearings on the case, and to let the Justice Department decide whether any of its witnesses committed criminal perjury.

But Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) and Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) agreed to take testimony behind closed doors next week to document more fully a conflict between statements of Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker, Peress' former commanding officer, and C. George Anastas, a former subcommittee aide. Anastas now is a Washington lawyer.

WEST POWERS WILL CONSULT ON RED OFFER FOR BIG FOUR

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States, Britain and France are expected to consult promptly on Russia's favorable attitude toward a high-level Big Four meeting.

As a result of France's parliamentary approval of German re-arming, the Western Powers will take up the problem of an approach to Russia on the firmest basis they have had for several years.

The problem of relations within the Western alliance, however, presents difficulties for President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles. Britain particularly is disturbed over the prospect of United States clash with Red China over the Chinese Nationalist coastal islands of Matsu and Quemoy.

Two Luncheon Topics
Both a Big Four meeting and the Quemoy-Matsu issue will be among problems discussed by Eisenhower leaders at luncheons at the White House Wednesday and Thursday.

Two European developments bearing upon a possible four-power meeting later this year were acclaimed here during the weekend.

A State Department statement, approved by Secretary Dulles, announced that "in general we welcome" the statement by Premier Nikolai Bulganin that the Soviet government takes a "positive attitude" toward President Eisenhower's views on arranging big power talks.

Like Eisenhower, Bulganin expressed interest in a conference if it would contribute to lessening international tensions. This suggested that he thought there should be some advance evidence that a meeting would be fruitful.

Senate Ratifies

A few hours after he spoke, the French Senate completed parliamentary action on ratification of a series of agreements which would make Germany an armed partner in the North Atlantic Alliance and in the Western European Union. Dulles immediately issued a

Ink Not Endorsed For Parakeet Health

PORT MADISON, Iowa (AP)—A woman wrote an ink manufacturer to ask whether her two pet parakeets will suffer ill effects because they drink its ink from the nib of her fountain pen.

"They even lap it out of the bottle if I leave the top off," she wrote.

The chief chemist for the firm, assured her he doesn't think the parakeets will be harmed because they consume only small amounts. "But we don't recommend it for that purpose," he said.

Fold cubes of leftover cake into vanilla pudding; arrange alternately with drained canned and cut-up fresh fruit in a glass bowl. Refrigerate for several hours and serve topped with whipped cream and a drizzle of freshly-grated nutmeg.

statement saying that the French action was "an event of great significance for the free world."

The Russians, for their part, have warned on several occasions that if Germany was made a partner in the Western defense system, East-West agreement on major European issues would be impossible.

Officials here considered it significant that Bulganin did not renew this line in his statement Saturday. He also avoided entirely the issue of including Red China in any meeting.

FIRST QUARTER PROFITS SURE TO BE HIGHER

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Profits in the first quarter now drawing to a close appear sure to top last year's earnings for most companies.

Scattered first reports — from companies with fiscal years that don't conform to the calendar year — show first-quarter net income after taxes higher in two cases out of three.

Dividend payments are running ahead of last year also. In January and February, the Commerce Department says, corporations paid 982 million dollars to stockholders. That is 5 per cent more than they paid out in the first two months of 1954.

Most Are Optimistic
Estimates by top men of corporations in many industries show most are confident of improving their profit position for the January, February and March period, when they make their official reports some six or eight weeks from now.

Many expect the earnings upturn to continue at least until the middle of the year. The turn for many of them came in the final months of 1954, after a year of shrinking earnings.

The profit gain won't be unanimous this spring, however. Some industries, like aircraft and electronics, did so well a year ago that the mark will be hard to top. Others, like machine tools, with long periods elapsing between orders and delivery, won't see the increase in earnings until later, although new orders are coming in now faster than a year ago.

Machinery To Help
A better-profits story this year is one of more sales and lowered costs as a result of new and more efficient machinery and plants.

In 1954 many companies managed to show better income after taxes in comparison with 1953 because the excess profits tax no longer was pulling net earnings down. In 1955 the same tax rules, by and large, apply as in 1954.

This year the smaller companies are expected to share in the happier profits outlook.

The Commerce Department and the Securities and Exchange Commission estimate that for the year sales of manufactures will advance 4 per cent, trade will be 6 per cent higher, and utilities will gain by 8 per cent.

Rooms Six

Cubage: House 26,600 ft.
Garage 7,700 ft.
Dimensions 68' x 27'

Offering a gracious combination for indoor and outdoor living, "The Los Animos" is designed primarily for those families who enjoy informal living and entertaining.

Spacious without giving the appearance of being large, this ranch house boasts an abundance of windows to bring as much as possible of the bright outdoors inside. Each of the three bedrooms has cross ventilation with the two front bedrooms containing three windows apiece.

Almost the entire area of the back walls in both the living and dining rooms is given over to the windows allowing for an unusual amount of sunlight and air in these rooms. The windows in the dining room look out on the back terrace where your ingenuity can be put to good use to make this outdoor living area just as attractive as you desire.

Located in the front of the house, the kitchen faces out on the area set aside for border plantings. Since the window in the breakfast nook also looks out on this little garden you'll want to make it especially delightful so that you'll have a pleasing view from the kitchen or breakfast nook.

The generous amount of closets throughout "The Los Animos" is a real boon to the housewife who likes to have a place to keep everything and likes to keep everything in its place. If you have but one car you can use the extra space in the two-car garage for storage.

Every home handyman will approve the installation of the tool bench and storage unit in the garage. And, the whole family will like the protected back entrance to the garage from the porch.

With overall dimensions of 68' x 27', "The Los Animos" would require at least a 90-foot lot. Cubage of the house is 26,600 feet; cubage of the garage is 7,700 feet. It would be best not to build a house of this type in a crowded area.

This house is selected as an illustration of a charming three-way combination of brick, stone and wood being used for the exterior finish. However, should you prefer shingles, brick or masonry you would find the results equally handsome though perhaps not as distinctive.

Since no laundry is included in the floor plan of "The Los Animos" it should be located under the kitchen in the basement of the house. The heating plant should be located under the living room.

Know How Long It Takes Flower Seeds To Sprout

STRIKE CLOSES LONDON PAPERS

LONDON (AP)—Did Jane get down to her bra and panties again or was this one of her bathtub days? (And what good would it do just to know?)

The horses are running at Leicester, but which ones? (That hot one will go and will you miss it?) Did a certain princess elope with a certain Air Force Hero? (Not that we know of.)

Did a certain elderly statesman announce his retirement? (Nah, not yet.)

And above all, confound it, what does a man hold in front of his face while riding to work on the bus or subway?

Life in London without newspapers, has, obviously, a great many frustrations. A wage strike by electricians and maintenance men has suspended publication since Friday of the city's 13 big dailies, the financial and sporting sheets and the Communist Daily Worker. And there's no sign of a break in the deadlock between the publishers and the unions.

The British Broadcasting Corp. does the best it can, but what can a BBC newscast do about Jane, for instance?

Jane is the queen of the comic page of the tabloid Mirror. A national pinup girl, she is blonde, beautiful, giddy, short skirted, and there are many times when she does not seem to realize she's a big girl now.

In full view of a circulation of some 4½ million, Jane manages once every week or so to appear in nothing but flimsy underwear. Once every two weeks or so she is seen as nature made her.

$250 Pound Of Butter Is Legal Problem

CAMBRIDGE, III. (AP)—A $250 pound of butter has State's Atty. William F. Kirman scratching his head over a legal problem.

M. C. Samuelson says he left a note for his milkman, and ordered a pound of butter with a signed check, the amount and payee left blank. The milkman made himself the payee and put the charge at $250, his complaint says.

Kirman says the statutes make check boosting a crime, but don't deal with filling in the blank check.

were in a sinkhole a quarter of mile from the house, and Bratcher under refuse of a sorghum mill a half mile from the house.

Th sheriff filed a murder warrant against Gibbs. He said Gibbs had admitted the thefts but denied the slayings.

Gibbs, who is unemployed, grew up in the Bratchers' neighborhood, but now lives in McMinnville. He is the father of twins born last Tuesday.

The victims were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bratcher, 44 and 42, their daughter, Lily May, 10, and their motherless granddaughter, 20 months.

As Sheriff Eldridge Youngblood explains it, this was the story: Bratcher was shot to death, his wife and daughter beaten to death and the baby either drowned or allowed to die of exposure last Wednesday.

Friday night, Charles Bratcher of McMinnville, father of the dead baby, found a note on his father's door: "Baby in Nashville hospital."

Saturday, finding this untrue, young Bratcher called for the sheriff. Officers saw the Bratchers' dog shot to death in the front yard and found bloodstains in the house and barn—but no bodies.

They found Bratcher's blood-stained truck on a McMinnville parking lot, and learned of the livestock sales. They charged Gibbs with larceny.

Sunday morning, they found the baby's body in a water-filled cistern. The mother and older girl

Flower seeds differ greatly in the time they take to germinate. Unless you know when to expect tiny sprouts to appear where seed was sown, it is easy to lose patience, and give the sowing up as a failure.

Varieties which have the reputation of being "difficult" may only be slow germinators; and the skill required to grow them a question of knowing how long to wait, so when they do appear they will not have been abandoned. Flowers which germinate quickly are most popular for sowing directly in the garden.

Among those which should germinate in five days are: Ageratum, Amaranthus, anthemis, candytuft, cardinal climber, centaurea, clarkia, calliopsis, cosmos, cynoglossum, dahlias, annual pinks, heleniums, helichrysum, annual mallow, marigold, mignonette, four-o'clocks, Virginia stocks, viscaria and zinnia.

When, in addition to quick germination, a flower has large seed and colorful blossoms, it is bound to be widely grown and popular, because easy to grow. Marigolds and zinnias, which share with petunias the popular leadership, are fast growing, large seeds; yet petunias, which rival them in popularity, have the smallest seeds of any, may take 12 days to germinate and are seldom sown directly in the garden.

The small seeded, slow germinators are as easy to grow as the fast ones if they are started in a seed box. Cucumers may even be sown, because of reduced hazards. But it helps to know how long you must wait for the sprouts to appear, as it enables you to sow varieties of about the same germination period in the same box.

Ten-day germinators include acroclium, pimpernell, anchusa, snapdragons, asters, balsam, brachycome, calendula, carnation, cerastium, cleome, cosmosium, dicranophthora, California poppy, gypsophila, lobelia, lupin, nigella, pansy, poppy, portulaca, scabiosa, thionia. Varieties which take from 15 to 20 days to show growth include begonia, datura, annual larkspur, godetia, impatiens, kochia, primula, salvia, salpiglossis, sweet peas. Of these, larkspur and salpiglossis seldom thrive when transplanted, and be grown from seed sown direct in the garden, if care is taken not to disturb the seed bed before they appear.

AUTO WORKERS READY TO ASK 30-HOUR WEEK

By NORMAN WALKER
CLEVELAND (AP)—The 30-hour work week is being readied by the CIO United Auto Workers as the next bargaining target after the present drive for the guaranteed annual wage.

The union's leaders are concentrating on whipping up support among the more than 3,000 delegates at the UAW's annual convention for the year-around pay plan. But they talk of the shorter work week as the next big step.

In fact, Walter Reuther, president of the CIO and the 1½-million-member UAW, indicated in his convention keynote address he sees no end in sight to organized labor's demands for more pay and improved working conditions so long as the American economy keeps expanding.

"When we go to the bargaining table," he said, "management asks, 'Don't you ever get tired of asking for more and more and more?'"

He said unions never will let up so long as they feel their demands are "economically just and economically necessary" and while science and technology continue to create more abundance. "We are going in year after year and ask for more and more and more because we are entitled to more and more and more," he said.

The UAW has made the guaranteed wage plan its major demand on the auto industry in bargaining talks due to start in early April. It would bind employers to pay 52 full weeks of pay a year regardless of whether there was that much work for employees.

AGED MAN DIES IN LIFE RAFT AS AIR LINER IS DITCHED IN SEA

By ELMER C. VOGEL

SEATTLE (AP)—The dry, choked voice of Mrs. Emma Pearson sounded shocked and far away as she told of the crash landing Saturday of the big Pan American World Airways plane in the Pacific Ocean.

"I didn't know it was John," she said in the voice of a person who wants to but can't cry. "I just noticed that someone had been dragged in all covered with oil. I lifted his head up and laid it in my lap so it would not lie in the water on the bottom of the life raft."

"He opened his eyes and smiled weakly, then said, 'Oh, is that you, Emma?'"

Lest An Engine

"Then he didn't say any more. He groaned, became silent and died there—his head in my lap."

John Peterson, 80, died. And so did three others in the crash landing of the Hawaii-bound plane on a quiet sea 25 miles off the Oregon Coast. His 75-year-old wife, survived, along with 18 other passengers and crew members.

The pilot of the big four-engine Stratocruiser, Capt. H. S. Joslyn, was forced to ditch the plane when one engine was wrenched from its mounting and fell into the sea. There was no explanation for the engine's tearing loose.

Heard Voices Fade

Last night the survivors brought back their recollections, bitter and sweet, and the bodies of the four who perished.

Three were swept to their deaths by a relentless current and wind that drove them away from life rafts on which the surviving huddled.

Those clustered on the three life rafts could hear the constantly weaker and more distant cries of those who died in their life jackets, victims of cold, shock and drowning.

"It's something I never want to hear again," a crew member recalled with breaking voice.

Calm Reigned

Those who came ashore from the Navy transport USS Bayfield in Seattle last night told of the calm of all aboard when Capt. Joslyn ordered over the communication

Scribes Cannot Find Out Who Released Yalta Papers

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP)—Almost two weeks after someone in the State Department "leaked" the Yalta papers to the New York Times there is still no answer from the department on three basic questions.

Who "leaked" them? Did Secretary of State Dulles know and approve? Why, on the very day they were "leaked," were they described as nonpublishable because they involved national security?

Dulles twice has been asked to explain the circumstances. He would not answer. Nor would his assistant secretary of state, Carl McCordle in charge of information, when asked point-blank if he did the "leaking."

There can no longer be any doubt where the Times got the documents on the wartime Roosevelt-Churchill-Stalin conference. The newspaper itself has said it got them from the State Department.

McCordle Won't Talk

This writer telephoned McCordle over the weekend and said: "You have twice been accused in print of being the one who 'leaked' the Yalta papers. Did you 'leak' them?" He said: "I won't answer a question like that."

On Monday, March 14, Dulles' press officer Henry Suydam, and on Tuesday, March 15, Dulles himself, told newsmen the Yalta papers system: "Get to your seats. Prepare to ditch."

It was 11:04 a.m. when the plane went down. The ship reached the life rafts at 12:30. Within three minutes the survivors were being bundled aboard lifeboats and then into the Bayfield's sick bay.

pers could not be released for publication at this time because: They involved national security and this country's relations with its allies. This indicated the papers were "classified" and therefore could not be made public.

But on March 15, the same day Dulles said that, the State Department gave the documents to the Times. When news of this got around the next day, Dulles released the Yalta documents to all newspapers.

This writer over the weekend asked Suydam why—since he and Dulles both said the Yalta papers involved national security and Allied relationships and therefore could not be published—they were released.

He was asked if they were classified up to the moment of their release. He said no. When had they been declassified? About 10 days to two weeks before they were released, he said.

Then he was asked: Why, if they were no longer classified, did he and Dulles say they couldn't be published because they involved national security and relations with the allies.

Suydam said he couldn't answer that. He was asked who declassified them. He said he couldn't answer that either.

3 GUARDS HELD AS HOSTAGES IN NEBRASKA PEN

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Three prisoners considered "dead weights" by their companions in the day-old rebellion at the Nebraska state penitentiary were sent to the wardens' office today, but nine others still held two guards hostage in the maximum security building.

Gov. Victor E. Anderson said after interrogating one of the three that the two guards had not been harmed. Ronald Larkin, 28; Paul Barnes, 35, and Elwood G. Robinson, 29, were sent from the prison jail at 4 a.m. following the first word from the holed-up prisoners since late yesterday afternoon.

Larkin, the governor said, told him the three left the building by mutual agreement because they were considered "dead weight" by the others. There was no elaboration.

The 12 prisoners in the penitentiary's "jail" captured the two guards, Warren B. Miller, 48, and Eugene Swanson, 34, early yesterday. They have been without food.

Guards Not Harmed

"The guards are not harmed in any way," Anderson said after talking to Larkin. "In fact, they have been sleeping."

The governor said, "The men are not planning an escape. They know they cannot escape."

He said Larkin indicated the nature of demands to be made, but would not disclose them until interrogating the other two men.

Anderson said prison authorities believe the rebels have "some kind of homemade knives."

First word from the prisoners since early yesterday evening was a phone call to the warden's office early today. John Ward, spokesman for the rebels, told a reporter after re-

BEWARE BARGAIN "WASHABLES"

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Some of the great bargains tagged "100 per cent washable" aren't always a good washing bet.

It is true that some of these fabrics may be washable before they are fashioned into a garment, but washing performance depends on the way the garment is constructed and trimmed by the manufacturer and whether thread and fasteners are colorfast, experts advise.

Home economists advise observing the following points:

1. Employ caution if the garment bears no instructions for washing.
2. Examine the article closely to make sure it is well made and that seams, hem and button holes are well-finished.
3. Observe the trimmings. Is the applique or embroidery of a contrasting color and is the fancy patch and colored thread used washfast? Is the beading the type that must be removed before dry cleaning? If in doubt, wash a colored or color-trimmed garment by itself. Turn the temperature control of your automatic gas water heater down to 100 degrees (warm). Wash only three minutes; spin dry one minute.

An all white article should be

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A 24-year-old mother came up with a new story when arrested by police last night for loitering. "I don't have any money for a fine," she complained, "and if I go to jail I'll be stuck 50 cents an hour by the baby sitter until I get out."

FRANCE OKAYS GERMAN ARMS; SEEK BIG TALKS

PARIS (AP)—Bolstered by final French parliamentary approval of German rearmament, Premier Edgar Faure today announced his efforts today to getting Allied agreement for Big Four talks soon with Russia.

As he prodded the apprehensive French Senate towards its crucial, pre-drawn votes on the Paris accords yesterday, Faure gave assurance he already had contacted the United States and Britain on preparation for a high-level parley with the Kremlin.

He went further by making an East-West conference — covering all problems — "susceptible to a solution" — the final item in a five-point statement of government aims. He stressed the need for full cohesion among the Western Allies before entering into talks with Russia.

Chances of four-power talks were believed greatly improved by Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin's sudden support as the French Senate prepared to vote. In an interview with the Soviet news agency Tass, Bulganin expressed his "positive attitude" toward President Eisenhower's news conference remarks last week advocating an East-West meeting after the accords have been fully ratified.

May Meet Adenauer
State Department officials in Washington said the Western Big Three were expected to consult promptly on Russia's favorable expression.

Dulles hailed the French Senate's approval of the West German rearmament treaties as "an event of great significance for the free world."

France's next diplomatic move is expected to be a conference between French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer sometime before Easter. The two will seek agreement on details of the Saar compromise which nearly split the West German Parliament.

West Germany's opposition Socialists announced yesterday they had obtained enough parliamentary support to compel the Supreme Court to consider their suit challenging the constitutionality of the French-German agreement to Europeanize the disputed coal-rich valley.

Adenauer, however, was reported jubilant over the French Senate's action, which came after Faure had beaten back every attempt to delay or water down endorsement.

Only the formality of President Rene Coty's signature remained to wind up French ratification.

LAUNCH DRIVE TO SPLIT GOP IN "1ST BREAK"

CHICAGO (AP)—A Republican group has touched off a drive to terms "the first major break between Eisenhower liberals and the 'isolationist' wing of the party."

The drive was announced yesterday by the Abraham Lincoln National Republican Club. The club said its aim is "to wrest control of the Republican party from the New Dealers and internationalists."

The club was one of the sponsors of a conservative Republican rally in Chicago Feb. 12. Among the speakers were Sen. McCarthy of Wisconsin, Sen. Malone of Nevada, Gov. J. Bracken Lee of Utah and Kit Clardy, former congressman from Michigan — all Republicans.

Go After Big Names
Capt. Edgar C. Bundy, of suburban Wheaton, the club president, said those speakers have said "they would make themselves available to speak at seminars in each of the 48 states at any time we wish to call them."

Bundy said the Chicago club is being expanded and will establish "recruiting offices around the

Couple Killed In Two-Car Collision

BROADHEADSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Joseph and Helen Vencelli, both 58, of Wilkes-Barre, were killed and three other persons injured in a two-car collision yesterday near here.

State police said the Vencellis were passengers in an auto driven by Mrs. Anna Phillips, 55, of Lee Park, near Wilkes-Barre. The other car was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Earl White of Philadelphia.

Mrs. White and Mrs. Phillips suffered fractured skulls and White received fractured ribs. They were taken to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

He also said he is confident that "by the time we are ready for another meeting we will have many other important American leaders on our team, including Sen. John W. Bricker (Ohio), Styles Bridges (N.H.), William F. Knowland (Calif.) and William Jenner (Ind.)."

In Washington, Knowland declined comment; Bridges said he has had no contact with the sponsors and knew "nothing about their plans." In Columbus, Ohio, Bricker said: "I don't know who they are. They've made no contact with me." Jenner was not available for comment.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

WILL SEEK NEW FORGERY TRIAL

HARRISBURG (AP)—Mrs. Helen W. Speck, 62, of Carlisle, was prepared today to seek a new trial on six counts of forgery following her conviction by a Dauphin County Criminal Court jury.

The jury ended a 2½ day trial Saturday by convicting Mrs. Speck, suspended deputy prothonotary of the state supreme and superior courts, in a case involving checks totaling $213.

Thomas D. Caldwell, Mrs. Speck's lawyer, said he would file a motion for a new trial, Judge Homer L. Kreider ordered Mrs. Speck, who first went to work for the state in 1922, continued in bail.

Mrs. Speck also faces trial on charges of larceny, embezzlement and fraudulent conversion. The veteran state employee was suspended in August after a state police investigation of her accounts uncovered irregularities. As deputy prothonotary in the Harrisburg office of the courts she was charged with handling various court money such as filing fees.

The six requisitions for state checks Mrs. Speck was convicted of signing illegally were made out to two women. Both testified they were not entitled to the checks and did not receive them.

FIRE DESTROYS MANSION
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 74-year-old mansion in the Main Line suburb of Radnor Township was destroyed by a $150,000 fire yesterday. Only one wall of the building remained standing after the blaze.

The home was owned by Daniel R. Sabre, a Philadelphia manufacturer.

R. A. WETZLER DIES
NEW YORK (AP)—Raymond A. Wetzler, 66, board chairman of the Whitehall Cement Manufacturing Co., of Philadelphia and Cementon, Pa., died in a hospital Saturday after a short illness.

Wetzler, who was connected with the cement industry since 1907, had been board chairman at Whitehall since 1947. Survivors include his widow, Ursula S. Wetzler.
